

10 Verses to Declare Over Infertility

"God blessed them and said to them, 'Be fruitful and increase in number.'" Genesis 1:28

Thank you, Lord, that the original mandate you gave me was to be fruitful and multiply. Thank you that you created your sons and daughters, including me, to create and produce life. I praise you that children are your idea. I declare that although my circumstances dictate otherwise, I am fruitful!

"The Lord will give you prosperity in the land he swore to your ancestors to give you, blessing you with many children, numerous livestock, and abundant crops" Deuteronomy 28:11

Lord, I thank you that you give me life in my womb and you promise me prosperity. I call forth the many children you have promised my spouse and I and praise you in advance for the blessings that are coming.

"You will be blessed beyond all peoples; there will be no barrenness among you." Deuteronomy 7:14

Thank you, Father, that I am blessed and you have blessed me to be a blessing to others, including my children to be. Thank you that infertility is not from you and it is not my identity. I declare there will be no barrenness between my spouse and myself and I declare it will not be a part of our future generations either.

"There will be no miscarriages or infertility in your land, and I will give you long, full lives." Exodus 23:26

Lord, your Word says that there will be no miscarriages or infertility. You promise long and full lives. I call forth life into my womb in Jesus' name and I cast out all infertility and command it to be gone. I thank you that you created me to be fruitful.

"He gives childless couples a family, gives them joy as the parents of children." Psalm 113:9

Lord, I thank you that you make every barren woman a joyful mother of children, including me. I thank you in advance for making me fruitful and fertile and giving me a family.

"Children are a gift from the LORD; they are a reward from him." Psalm 127:3

Thank you, Lord, that all children are a gift and reward from you. You already have them written in the book of life and I praise you in advance for bringing my husband and I our children and blessing us with a reward.

"How joyful are those who fear the Lord—all who follow his ways! You will enjoy the fruit of your labor. How joyful and prosperous you will be! Your wife will be like a fruitful grapevine, flourishing within your home. Your children will be like vigorous young olive trees as they sit around your table. That is the Lord's blessing for those who fear him." Psalm 128:1-4

I declare I am like a fruitful grapevine, flourishing within my home. I thank you Father for the blessing of children that is coming my way and I declare that I am fertile and fruitful. Thank you that your joy is my strength.

"You formed my innermost being, shaping my delicate inside and my intricate outside, and wove them all together in my mother's womb." Psalm 139:13

Thank you, Lord, for your plans to knit my children in my own womb. Thank you for aligning my body up so I can receive seed and carry a child to full term.

"Now that you belong to Christ, you are the true children of Abraham. You are his heirs, and now all the promises God gave to him belong to you." Galatians 3:9, 29

Lord, I thank you for the faith and hope Abraham and Sarah's story releases to my own life. I thank you for blessing Sarah's womb and giving her a baby. I thank you that your promises were made to Adam and his seed, Jesus Christ. I praise you that I have been made one with Christ and receive the benefits from the covenant made. I call forth those same promises for my family and my womb.

"Sing, O barren one, who did not bear; break forth into singing and cry aloud, you who have not been in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than the children of her who is married," says the Lord. "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched out; do not hold back; lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes. For you will spread abroad to the right and to the left, and your offspring will possess the nations and will people the desolate cities." Isaiah 54:1-3

Lord, in my desolate, dry and barren looking season, I choose to sing and praise! I thank you for having good plans for my family. I thank you that my offspring will make an impact on your Kingdom and in faith, I choose today to expand the place of my tent and prepare for my children to come home.
